

Shelly A Brotherton, PMP

Shelly Brotherton is a Senior Project Manager, responsible for managing large scale, enterprise projects. She has been a project manager and trainer for over 17 years with a specific focus in Financial Services, Insurance, Legal, Compliance and Process Improvement.

In addition to her corporate work, Shelly is a member of the Project Management Institute (PMI) and has served in numerous leadership roles. She is currently the Project Manager for the PMI Practice Standard for Estimation. In addition, she has been the Deputy Project Manager for the WBS Project Standard and the Component Mentor for Region 2, which consists of 20 chapters in the North Central United States and Canada. Shelly is also a 2004 graduate of the PMI Leadership Institute.

Shelly holds a Bachelor's Degree from The Franciscan University, a Masters Degree in Project Management from Keller Graduate School of Management and is a PMI certified Project Management Professional. She also holds the following designations: Fellow Life Management Institute (FLMI); Certified Toastmaster (CTM) and Advanced Leader (AL).

Shelly's outside interests include Scrapbooking, Genealogy, Community Theatre and volunteering her time as part of her local Board of Adjustments. She has been married to her husband Joel for 13 years and they have two "furry" children – Venus and Athena.